THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

IN 1917
Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price.

The value and need of a newspaper in the household was never greater than at the present time. The great war in Europe is now half way into its third year, and, whether peace be at hand or yet be far off, it and the events to follow it are sure to be of absorbing interest for many a month to come.

These are world-shaking affairs, in which the United States, willing or unwilling, is compelled to take a part. No intelligent person can ignore such issues.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S regular subscription price is $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and the

SMILES WORTH MORE TODAY

May Help to Lift the Burden That Someone is Carrying in These Troubled Times of War.

We are living now, in a troubled time. War is with us—war that brings the fear and pain of parting and giving and renouncing. And it isn't as easy to smile as it has been. And for just that reason, every smile that we give means a hundred times as much as it formerly did.

And so I'm going to ask you, friends of mine, to try to bring one smile a day to some soul who, maybe, hasn't the courage to smile, says a writer in the Christian Herald. You needn't limit yourself to one smile—if you can make ten, twenty, fifty people smile, so much the better. But be sure, at least, of that one smile!

A little old lady didn't know that she was making the way possible for a genius—that she was bringing a gift of God out of obscurity into the light. But that's what she did when she made the writer-girl's work worth while.

We don't know, any more than the little old lady did, when we give our smiles, just how much good we may be doing. Sometimes a smile, given at the right time, is worth almost as much as a word of understanding, or a loving hand, or a bit of helpful advice. And sometimes the smile that isn't given may be the weight of lead to help crush someone.

A little girl in the subway disappeared into the crowd before I could show her that I wanted to be friendly. Don't let your opportunities to bring cheer disappear, as she did, into oblivion.

WISE

"Does your janitor attempt to show his authority?"

"No. I gave him to understand from the first that I fully recognized it without any argument."

HONORING FARM HEROES.

While we are about it, and while we are praising the farmer as the savior of the nation and a valiant factor in the war—if he is all these nice things; if his labor is so important an essential, and if he is indeed a soldier of the nation, why not decorate the farmer who does distinguished service in the furrows with the honor he deserves.

In 15 years the farmer has raised the average crop per acre from 15 to more than 50 bushels. He can do better even than that. Some few states now honor these heroes of the farm. Why should not our department of agriculture in Washington institute this year a great national farming contest?—Utica Globe.

DOING HIS BIT.

"My husband is very tired at night now."

"Got a garden, has he?"
"Oh, yes. And he talks so much about it that he's tired when night comes."

EITHER ONE IS GOOD.

Knicker—What are the two ways of helping Uncle Sam?

Bocker—Do and do without.—New York Sun.

LITERAL EXPLANATION.

"How did the dog come to bite you?"

"Because he could run faster than I could."

SAME THING.

"You say she always wears a touch-me-not air?"

"No, but it's always a case of fresh paint."

ALL IN THE SAME BOX.

"But don't you think you could be happy without money?"

"Oh, yes—if nobody else had any."

Greek Athletic Judges.

St. Paul mentions in II Timothy, 4: 8, that the judge in the Greek athletic contests was selected for his spotless integrity; his office was to decide any disputes, Col. 3:15; and to award the prize, I Cor. 9:24; consisting of a crown, II Timothy, 2:5, and 4:2; of leaves of wild olive at the Olympic games and of pine, or at one period, ivy, at Isthmian games.
